Strategic Plan

2022-2028

OUR VISION

By 2028 ICOM will be a more transparent, agile, collaborative and democratic organisation, supporting our network to meet demands of a rapidly changing world.

OUR COMMITMENT

We support our members in the stewardship of museums, in the custodianship of collections and in the service of heritage and the public. We face challenges together, fostering diversity, inclusion and equity and addressing decolonisation, climate change and sustainability.

OUR VALUES

We are international in outlook

We are professional in focus

We are collaborative in practice

FOCUS AREAS

The global voice for museums

Best practice in governance and management

Leading a global museum network engaging with change

OUR MISSION

We connect and represent museum professionals across the world & provide a network for sharing knowledge and practice. We advocate at an international level for the vital role that museums play in supporting peaceful, healthy and sustainable communities.

OUR PRIORITIES

ICOM strengthens its position as the global voice for the museum community

ICOM implements best practice in governance and management

ICOM leads a global museum network engaging with change

IMPLEMENTATION

This is your Plan (https://agora.icom.museum/). After adoption at the General Assembly, reach out to the Strategic Plan Committee (ole@have.dk). They will work with you to develop your own implementation Plan based on a selection of the strategies most relevant to the work you do.

© 2022 The International Council of Museums (ICOM)
What is this Plan about?
This Plan is about change – the changes that museums are facing, and the changes that will equip ICOM to support its network in the future.

ABOUT ICOM

Established in 1946, the International Council of Museums (ICOM) is an independent, non-governmental museum membership association with a global remit.

As an international body, ICOM currently has 44,686 individual members in 138 countries who participate through:

118 National Committees,
6 Regional Alliances,
32 International Committees and
22 Affiliated Organisations.

OUR VISION

By 2028, we will be a more transparent, agile, collaborative and democratic organisation, supporting our network to meet the demands of a rapidly changing world.

OUR MISSION

We connect and represent museum professionals across the world and provide a network for sharing knowledge and practice.

We advocate at an international level for the vital role that museums play in supporting peaceful, healthy and sustainable communities.
OUR COMMITMENT

We are committed to supporting our members in the stewardship of museums, in the custodianship of collections and in the service of heritage and the public.

We face contemporary challenges together.

We work for the protection of cultural and natural heritage.

We foster diversity, inclusion and equity.

We address decolonisation and climate change and work for the sustainability of our sector in a post-Covid world.

OUR VALUES

We are international in outlook.

We are professional in focus.

We are collaborative in practice.

OUR PRIORITIES

ICOM strengthens its position as the global voice for the international museum community.

ICOM implements best practice in governance and management.

ICOM leads a global museum network engaging with change.
IMPLEMENTING THE PLAN

This Plan has evolved from a detailed consultative process. Each part of the Association has been involved in its development and every part will have a role to play in its implementation.

After adoption by the General Assembly during the ICOM Triennial Conference in Prague (August 2022), the Strategic Planning Committee will work with the International and National Committees, Regional Alliances, Standing Committees, Working Groups, the Secretariat and the Executive Board to develop specific implementation plans based on a selection of those objectives most relevant to the work which they do.

In a spirit of collaboration and resource sharing, this Plan will encourage National Committees, International Committees, Regional Alliances and partners to work with the Secretariat and the Executive Board to fulfil specific strategic objectives.

THE STRUCTURE OF THE PLAN

3 focus areas

10 strategic objectives
FOCUS AREA 1

Global positioning

WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE
ICOM is recognized as the trusted, objective voice for the global museum sector.

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
ICOM offers an international perspective from which to communicate the role of museums to the public and to promote a deeper understanding of their contribution to societies.

<table>

</table>
| ICOM promotes museums in international forums and leads the sector in addressing issues of global significance to museums. | BRANDING
Build on the 2014 branding study to position ICOM on the basis of its values, its professional benefits and its impact in areas of significance to the museum sector. | Communications Department and the Executive Board | Membership increases especially among young adults. |
| CAMPAIGNS
Build on ICOM’s role as a leader in Heritage Protection by increasing its engagement with intergovernmental and non-governmental bodies to raise awareness for enhanced museum security and emergency response planning to deal with increasing military conflict and environmental events. | Heritage Protection Relevant partners | Increased number of initiatives that address museum security and risk management training are reported. |
| PARTNERSHIPS AND ALLIANCES
Reactivate ICOM’s participation in UN Committees.
Review existing partnerships to ensure they are current, relevant and impactful.
Identify relevant like-minded organisations with which to form new partnerships or influential networks. | Executive Board and Director General, relevant partners | ICOM is a visible presence on UN Committees/Existing partnerships are reviewed and the results reported/New partners are identified. |
Governance

WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE
Best practice standards in governance and management.

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
To build membership confidence in ICOM’s elected bodies and the decisions they take and to implement ICOM’s 2019 Resolution on Sustainability in relation to Sustainable Goal 16 (Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions).

Focus Area 2

Diversity

What We Want to Achieve

ICOM’s global diversity is represented across all components of the Association.

Why This Is Important

Museums serve diverse publics. In accordance with UN Sustainable Development Goal 10 (to reduce inequality within and among countries) ICOM and the museums it represents must reflect and serve diversity in governance, operations and engagement.

<table>

What will this look like

ICOM actively seeks greater diversity in the Executive Board, Secretariat, Committees and Working Groups.

ICOM seeks to diversify its membership.

ICOM supports its network to implement policies and practices which promote internal diversity and social inclusion.

CUSTOMISE capacity building programs to reflect regional realities.
FOCUS AREA 3

Sustainable funding

WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE
The value of museums to society is recognized through sustainable government investment.

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
Museums are active contributors to the social cohesion of communities, the well-being of individuals and an informed and active citizenry. Adequate levels of public funding are necessary for them to sustain and develop this role.

What will this look like
ICOM makes the case for sustainable government funding for museums.

How will we get there
DEVELOP an international campaign for sustainable public investment in museums through promoting the value and social contribution of museums to societies.

RESEARCH global patterns of public funding for museums, identify impacts and examine emerging business models.

Implementation
Executive Board, Communications, National Committees
Executive Board and other relevant partners

Monitoring progress
The campaign is used by NCs to advocate with governments at a national level.
Research findings received by Dec 2023.

Museums confidently advocate for sustainable government funding at a national level and are aware of emerging business models.

SUPPORT the advocacy work of National Committees to make the case for sustainable government funding through publishing the Advocacy Training Manual and providing associated training.

BUILD capacity through programmes that facilitate the sharing of information on sustainable business models.

Executive Board, Director-General, Communications, Capacity Building, relevant Committees
Capacity Building Department

Advocacy Manual is published. Training for National Committees is developed and provided. NCs report impact on public funding for museums.
Capacity building programmes on advocacy and business models are established.
WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE
ICOM fulfils its commitment to the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) with specific reference to Goal 13 (Climate Action).

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
Museums are recognised as trusted sources of knowledge and valuable resources for engaging communities to imagine and create sustainable futures for our planet (ICOM’s Resolution on Sustainability, Kyoto 2019).

FOCUS AREA 3
Climate Change

What will this look like
ICOM works proactively to address the role that museums can play in tackling climate change.

How will we get there
DEVELOP AND IMPLEMENT a 2030 Action Plan to fulfil ICOM’s commitment to the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Implementation
Working Group on Sustainability, Museums and Society Department

Monitoring progress
Action Plan is produced, adopted and actioned.

ADOPT a policy: that will see ICOM become a carbon neutral organisation by 2028.

Executive Board, Secretariat

Policy is established, adopted and actioned.

ICOM supports museums to implement policies and programs which address climate change.

DEVELOP and IMPLEMENT capacity building programs for museums to address climate change in their operations (to become carbon neutral by 2028), in public engagement and in advocacy with stakeholders.

Capacity Building Department, Museums and Society Department

Programs launched and promoted.

PUBLISH a special issue of Museum International on climate change and sustainability.

Publications Department

Edition published.
FOCUS AREA 3
Digital futures

WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE
A forward-thinking museum sector that can use digital to connect in new ways with their communities, better manage their collections, and provide unprecedented access to the publics they serve.

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
Digital is changing. ICOM needs to support the museum sector to embrace the next generation of digital technology.

What will this look like

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>How will we get there</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CREATE an Expert Advisory Group to keep ICOM abreast of new developments in the digital field to address.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MODEL best practice by using digital in innovative ways to communicate with and engage the ICOM network.</td>

Leadership

WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE
A leadership culture which is inspired, innovative and progressive in the face of change.

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
Effective leadership is a key factor in the health of the Association and the sustainability of the museum sector.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
FOCUS AREA 3

Decolonisation

WHAT WE WANT TO ACHIEVE
ICOM leads a global forum to clarify the issues and identify best practice on decolonising museums.

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
ICOM recognises the role that museums have played in the colonising process and actively upholds international normative instruments, including the 2015 Recommendation on Museums, the 2001 Declaration on Cultural Diversity and the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
